07 Information	Title IX Review & Updates Description: Campus updates and an overview of Title IX resources Fiscal Impact: None Michelle and Bridget use this time to speak about their role in Title IX. Bridget gives a general run-through of how you can use the resources of Title IX and how they could help students, faculty and staff. The title IX provides an endless amount of confidentiality and security. Title IX is a law that seeks to ensure equity for students regardless to how they identify as their gender and is also to prevent educate around issues of sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and domestic violence.	Bridget Blanshan Associate VP for Student Affairs / Title IX Coordinator
08 Information	CSSA October Plenary Report Description: Overview of the CSSA October Plenary meeting. Fiscal Impact: None Julia gave a review of the bills that were passed by Governor Newsom that CSSA was advocating for such as AB 367 which requires all public schools, including higher education to provide menstrual products. Another bill that was passed was AB 92E this bill requires a CSU and UC to establish a singular lower division general education pathway for transfer admission. She explains that this will benefit transfer students and help them pursue their academic goals. The last law approved was AB 1456 which was granted to help students with financial aid and help them financially.	Julia Glorioso Chair

09 Discussion	Preferred Class Modalities Description: Discussion about student preferences of class modalities for upcoming spring semester Fiscal Impact: None Julia discusses the preferences of class modality. This is a time where students give their input of where they'd like to be in the spring due to the number of hybrid classes and if students are comfortable coming back fully in person or if they'd prefer virtual classes. Richard gives his opinion about the discussions he has also had with students in regard to in person and virtual classes. Codie also describes his experiences and explains that students also prefer the in-person format and explains how they feel more engaged with their classmates and their experiences and the way they learn. Ernest also explains that CHABSS is mostly virtual but speaks on the students' perspective and states how they are leaning more towards in person.	Julia Glorioso Chair
10 Discussion	RoundTable Discussion Description: Student representatives discuss student issues & concerns Fiscal Impact: None Julia discusses dining options on campus and talks about the dining committee and its role in SAC. Juliana speaks from resident hall and explains the concerns from the students staying at either the UVA or QUAD about dining options and how students would like more options and opportunities to get food while living there. Jesus also brings up the hours of CSUSM's food court and how to accommodate to students' hours based on the fact some students have later classes and would like to buy food however the food court would be closed. Jason discusses the idea of a dining hall and also gave the consideration to bring up the hours of the food court in his next meeting and how to resolve that.	Julia Glorioso Chair
