- I. Approval of Agenda (EA)
- II. Approval of Minutes from April 2020 (EA)
- III. Updates/Notices
 - Fall 2020 planning Chancellors Office announced Fall 2020 semester will be online. There will be modifications for selected courses that need 1:1 instruction. Social Distance measures will be in place. Waiting for CSUSM president update. Current fall schedule will be adapted. Research activities on campus - what will it look like to reopen, what will staff be asked to do.
 - Budget updates coming from the governor in next couple of days. Budget scenario unknown for now.
 - Access to campus – the dean emailed a request to campus form.
 - Grading – what should faculty do about non-responsive students. Faculty are hesitant about grading students without knowing if they have circumstances where they cannot communicate. Shannon is willing to reach out to non-responsive students.
 - How will students get commencement stoles?
 - Enrollment deadlines for students was pushed back to June 1. Perspective students are unsure about online courses. Could be good to ensure students that this is temporary, and they will always be supported.
 - Campus is looking into purchasing software programs for faculty to use.
 - Each department is preparing for virtual classes during the fall semester. Some departments have more challenges than others.
