

30 Ways to NOT Haze

1. Get involved with campus and community service projects
2. Plan a fundraiser on campus or for local charitable organizations
3. Go on an organized trip with USUAB
4. Have an organizational retreat at the USU or McMahon House
5. Visit a ropes course to work on group cohesiveness, communication, and leadership
6. Work together to plan a social or athletic event with another student organization
7. Have new members discuss organizational weaknesses and plan solutions that the organization might then adopt
8. Take a trip to the beach and organize a sandcastle building competition
9. Encourage participation in school/campus activities outside of the organization
10. Acknowledge a member that goes above and beyond
11. Encourage new members to get involved in committees and/or leadership roles
12. Gather a group of members and create an intermural sports team
13. Develop a peer mentor program within your group for leadership roles
14. Have a pool and barbeque day at the UVA
15. Invite school/community/business leaders into the organization to share their experiences
16. Attend a movie, farmers market, fair, sporting event, or concert as an organization
17. Have organized lunch together as a group during UHour
18. Do arts and crafts for a cause
19. Plan a "membership circle" where new and current members participate in a candlelight service in which each person has a chance to express what membership means to them
20. Start a book of the month/semester club
21. Invite an older member or alumni to talk about the organization's early days, its founding, special traditions, and prominent former members
22. Have a trivia night, including university and organizational history
23. Invite leaders from the Greek Leadership Council to speak on Greek governance including their goals and expectations of the fraternity/sorority community
24. Use university resources for seminars on resume writing, job interview skills; various careers
25. Plan a spa night with manicures, pedicures, movies, and facials
26. Plan a visit to the local dog shelter and walk the dogs
27. Attend a CSUSM sporting event
28. Organize and host an educational workshop and invite other organizations
29. Plan a potluck dinner with new and active members
30. Surprise a member of your organization with a thank you note for all of their contributions